

The Breathitt News.

J. WISE HAGINS, Editor.

Friday, August 25, 1905.

G. W. FLEENOR A. H. PATTON

FLEENOR & PATTON
LAWYERS,
JACKSON, - KENTUCKY.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

FOR ASSESSOR.

We are authorized to announce
JOHN L. STRONG
as a candidate for Assessor of Breathitt county, subject to the action of the Republican party.

FOR SHERIFF.

I am a candidate for Sheriff of Breathitt County at the coming November election.

BRECK CRAWFORD,
Cope Branch, Ky.

FOR JAILER.

We are authorized to announce
LEWIS GROSS,
of Elkatawa, as a candidate for the office of Jailer of Breathitt county, subject to the action of the Republican party.

FOR COUNTY ATTORNEY.

We are authorized to announce
S. B. MINIX
as a candidate for Jailer, subject to the action of the Republican party.

FOR COUNTY ATTORNEY.

We are authorized to announce
L. C. ROARK
as a candidate for County Attorney of Breathitt county at the November election, 1905.

FOR JUSTICE OF THE PEACE.

We are authorized to announce
MIKE ROBINSON
as a candidate for Justice of the Peace for Magisterial District No. 1, subject to the action of the Republican party.

The cry of bolter and other abusive epithets will not keep an honest man from voting against a criminal who has secured his place on the ticket by fraud.

Let the people select the very best men in the county for the various county offices on September 9th. We do not want a man on our ticket that has ever been indicated for any offense.

The call for the convention to meet here September 9th includes every honest man in Breathitt county. Let every one, that can, come and lend a helping hand towards redeeming Breathitt county from the reign of criminals.

An independent Democratic ticket for the various city offices has been nominated at Winchester.
They are getting tired of the machine there also.

BOSSISM IN THE STATE.

Democrats of Western Kentucky have long looked with wonder at the patient submission of their brethren in Central and Eastern Kentucky to the bossism of little politicians, temporarily elevated to these places, in the matter of making nominations.

Methods of making nominations in Louisville, Covington and Newport and even in smaller places and some into counties in the upper part of the state, surpass the understanding of our Democrats, or at least the patience and humility with which such nominations are accepted, are occasion of much surprise.

What would the Democrats of Paducah do if Clem Whitmore, state central committeeman for the First district, whose home is at Mayfield, but whose temporary residence is at Frankfort should come to town and fix up a slate for mayor and council, senator and representative in the legislature, circuit judge and a county ticket, and undertake to put it through by machine methods, such as have long prevailed in Louisville, Covington, Newport and other places?

They would tie a noose to the coat-tail and start him down the Mayfield road lickety-split, and he would stand not on the order of his going.

Suppose Powell Taylor, of Hesderson, state central committeeman for the Second district, should sneak such impertinent interference at Owensboro, or Hop-kinton, or Madisonville, or Supper, or McCutchen, or Russell, and try to run the politics of Green? What would they do?

be a grease spot left of them.
What has been the experience of the "deputy governors"—the men to whom all applicants for pardons, or police judge appointments, or other favors from the executive office, must be made under the present administration? One by one they have been knocked down by the people as fast as they have hubbled up asking for office, until it is now almost fatal to be tagged as "deputy governor" in these parts.

The people of Western Kentucky never would and never will stand for political bossism. There have never been any bosses in this part of the State, nor dishonest primaries. Everything must be done on the square. We have leaders, but no bosses. And no real leader would attempt to interfere in local affairs outside of his own community.—Owensboro Messenger.

WILL YOU HELP US?

Our subscribers have helped us to make The News what it is, and have made it a description list
the largest in Eastern Kentucky for the past three years.

Now, we want to add 1,000 new subscribers to our list during the month of August, which can be easily done if our present subscribers will help us. We want to help them in return, and make the following offer, good until September 1st:

To each one of our subscribers who will secure a NEW subscriber and send us one dollar, we will mark his subscription up one year, or to each one of our subscribers who renews his subscription we will send The News to any friend
he chooses until January 1st free.

This offer will be withdrawn after September 1st. We hope each one of our subscribers will take advantage of this liberal proposition and help us to make The News better and better each week.

CORRESPONDENCE.

LAST CREEK.

The surveyors for the L. & E. railway are in this vicinity surveying.

D. L. Roberts, who has been very low with fever for some time is very much improved.

Rev. John Combs, our good preacher, expounded the gospel in its purity at the mouth of Riley Sunday.

G. W. Watts and wife, Delila, having decided house-keeping, a larder, have given the cause up and are boarding with their parents.

Misses Uoon and wife, with Malto Watt, and wife, Watts, gave a C. Noble and wife, assistants Sunday.

EVERSOLE.

Willie Gibson, who has been teaching school in Lee county, visited home Sunday.

Wilson bought a horse and Robert Judd last Sunday paid for the cents a team.

Grady and wife, Sunday
visited home.

Grady and wife, Sunday
visited home.

Among those who were visiting our correspondent last Saturday and Sunday were: Miss Nellie Turner, of Jackson; Henry Johnson, of Fillmore; Prof. Conert, of Green county; William Robinson and wife, of Garrard county; Lee Gibson, of Eversole and Carrie Johnson, of Indian Creek.

ROUSSEAU.

Charley Sally is on the sick list.
Richard McIntosh is a candidate for Constable in this precinct.

Revs. Daniel McIntosh and John H. Combs will preach at Stout Harvey's on the last day of September and the first day of October.

Revs. Platts Davis and Daniel McIntosh will hold services at Lambrie Sunday, September 3rd.

James S. B. and J. H. Benson, is a candidate for Justice of the Peace of the district, subject to the action of the honest voters.
The good people are looking at the condition of Breathitt county and are saying the time has come that they will vote men to hold

G. D. ...

NEED.

Born, to the wife of G. B. Combs, a son.

A convention was held in district No. 6 last Saturday resulting in the nomination of J. B. Noble for magistrate and William Combs for constable, but it is claimed Combs was not entitled to the nomination. McChesney Neace, his opponent, having 41 majority, but in the midst of a great uproar it was given to Combs. Neace is still a candidate, subject to the action of the people. There are some hard feelings existing over the proceedings of the convention. It is to be hoped these conditions will soon disappear and man to man be united and every wrong thing be righted and the country be lighted as it should have been long ago.

Call on G. D. Plummer for fresh bread and the nicest meat.

The Missouri Pacific Railway Co.

The last tour of the season. Lowest rates ever offered. Leave St.
Louis via Missouri Pacific Railway, Saturday, September 2, '05.
Pullman Standard Sleepers. Dining Cars. Tickets include all expenses. Side trips, etc. For further information address, A. A.
Gallagher, D. P. A., 419 Walnut street, Cincinnati, O.

M. Sterling Court.

About 2,000 cattle on the market and the quality was good. Trade was very brisk and sales quickly followed each other. At times it was all that the scales could do to weigh the cattle as fast as desired.
The best 900 lb. to 1,000 lb. steers at $3.50 to $3.75, with lower grades at $3 to $3.25. Yearlings at $3 to $3.50; the latter price for some extra good ones. Heifers at 24 to 36, with a few sales of fat heifers at $3.10 to $3.25. Cows at $2 to $2.50. Bulls, $2 to $2.50. A few hogs sold at $5 to $5.50. About 1,500 sheep sold at $4 to $4.50 for good ewes.

Mules were about the same. We saw a farmer refuse $185 per head for four heavy mules—he sold later at $190 per head. One thing you can bank on, mules are not going down in price. Horses are in demand and a good one sells at a big price at any time.—Advocate.

NOTICE.

I will receive vote for shipment at Elkatawa August 22.
Frozen, August 23.
Jackson, August 26.

E. C. HURST, Agent,
Riverside Woolen Mills.

NOTICE TO VOTERS.

To the Voters of Magisterial
District No. 1, Breathitt County:
After continuous solicitations by my many friends, I have been induced to announce myself a candidate for the office of Justice of the Peace for said district. I am quite sure all or most of you have met me either socially or in business transaction, which is sufficient for you to judge of my ability to serve you if elected. Therefore,
I most earnestly solicit your support. Yours very truly,
H. F. DAVIS.

NOTICE TO VOTERS.

To the Voters of Magisterial District No. 8:
I am a candidate for the office of Justice of the Peace for Elliott-ville precinct. I desire the support of each and all of the citizens of said precinct. I have been solicited by many of my neighbors and friends to make this race, and, if elected, I will serve them to the best of my ability. I am thirty years old and have never before asked any of my friends to vote for me for any office, and hope that I am not asking too much of them in asking their support at this time. Hoping you will give me a just and fair consideration,
I remain, yours respectfully,
JOS. LOVELY.

CINCINNATI MARKETS.

CINCINNATI, Aug. 23.—Cattle: Market druggy and slow. Good stockers and feeders fairly active.
Good to choice butcher steers
$4.00 to 4.60; common to fair $2.00 to 3.75; heifers good to choice $3.40 to 4.00; common to fair $2.25 to 3.25; cows common to fair $1.60 to 2.25; oxen $1.75 to 3.85.

Calves: Common and large $3.00 to 5.00; good to light $5.25 to 6.00.
Prices steady.

Good to choice packers $6.20;
common to choice heavy fat sows,
$4.75 to $5.75; light sows, $4.20 to 5.35; pigs 14 pounds and less $5.50 to 6.15.
Sheep, good to choice, $3.65 to 4.15; common to fair $2.50 to 3.60.

Lambs, common to fair, $4.25 to $6.25.

Such results from a disordered condition of the stomach and are cured by Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. For sale by the Drug Co.

THE "DODGING PERIOD"

of a woman's life, is the name often given to the "change of life." Your menses come at longer intervals, and grow scantier until they stop. Some women stop suddenly. The entire change lasts three or four years, and is the cause of much pain and discomfort, which can, however, be cured, by taking

WINE OF CARDUI

Woman's Refuge in Distress.

It quickly relieves the pain, nervousness, irritability, miserableness, forgetfulness, fainting, dizziness, hot and cold flashes, weakness, tired feeling, etc. Cardui will bring you safely through this "dodging period," and build up your strength for the rest of your life. Try it.
At all druggists, in $1.00 bottles.

WRITE US A LETTER

Put aside all timidity and write us freely and frankly, in strictest confidence, telling us all your symptoms and troubles. We will send free advice (in plain, sealed envelope), how to cure them. Address: Ladies' Advisory Dept., The Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn.

"EVERYTHING BUT DEATH"

I suffered," writes Virginia Robson, of Easton, Md., "until I took Cardui, which cured me so quickly it surprised my doctor, who didn't know I was taking it. I wish I had known of Cardui earlier in life."

$25,000 REWARD!!

In order that none of our customers may be misled by unscrupulous and misleading statements to the effect that our garments are not all made strictly to order, we take pleasure in offering this liberal reward to anyone proving the contrary.

We make all garments strictly to order and positively carry no ready made stock at all. The cloth is thoroughly shrunk before garments are cut, and the goods are cut and made for each individual order.

We hereby agree to pay $25,000 in Gold to anyone proving that we do not make garments specially for individual orders.

Yours truly,
International Tailoring Co.

YOU'LL OPEN WIDE YOUR EYES

when you see what a beautiful assortment of patterns we are showing in "International" clothes. Hundreds of styles to choose from in these fabrics, with fit and finish guaranteed.

If you have never worn International garments, there's a pleasant surprise in store for you

S. H. Stidham & Son,
JACKSON, KY.

Why Send Your Money Away

FOR

Sewing-Machines

When You Can Buy the Best in Your Own Town

Direct From the Maker

At as Low Prices and on Better Terms

By this sign you will know and can find at our store in Jackson.

KENTUCKY'S BIG STATE FAIR

AT LEXINGTON.

September 18-23

6 BIG DAYS 6
IN PREMIUMS $25,000 IN PREMIUMS

THE GREATEST DISPLAY OF LIVE STOCK AND AGRICULTURAL PRODUCTS EVER ATTEMPTED IN THE SOUTH.

Novel Attractions. Magnificent Exhibitions.

The Famous DUSS BAND of 40 Pieces

For Catalogue or Further Information, Address

GEO. A. BAIN, Secretary, Lexington, Ky.

DAY BROS

COMPANY

Wholesale - and - Retail

have the most complete stock of

GENERAL MERCHANDISE

Ever brought to Jackson Consisting of

Dry Goods, Notions,
Clothing,
Hats,
Shoes.

We have the finest line of shoes in Eastern Kentucky. Our men's shoes are of the latest style.

For the Ladies
we have the most Fashionable Lot of Shoes money could buy.

THE LATEST DESIGNS IN MILLINERY.

This Department is under the management of Miss Margaret Basket, who can show you

The Latest Style Hats

direct from New York City. Also FASHIONABLE DRESS GOODS,
In all the Latest Patterns and weaves Fresh from the Eastern Markets.

If you need any House Furnishings or

FURNITURE

We are the people you are looking for we have it by car loads to suit

every body.

Come and see us our

Prices Are All Right.

DAY BROS. COMPANY

Jackson, Kentucky.

Local and Personal

Coen Cole at Hadden's.

Go to G. D. Plummer for the best fresh meats.

Stop with Hart Bros. at Reed hotel when in Lexington.

Breck Herald, of Herald, was here on business Wednesday.

See J. R. Blake's 10c window. The bargains will surprise you.

G. D. Plummer receives fresh bread daily from the bakery.

R. B. Landrum, of Lost Creek, was here on business last Wednesday.

Robert Vannarsdall has returned from a visit to his parents at Burgin.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Patton, of Rousseau, were here this week shopping.

W. H. Whitaker, the barber, will soon move his shop back into the Crawford building.

James R. Back and wife, of the Round Bottom on Quicksand, were here Saturday shopping.

H. L. Bales, manager of Day's store at Frozen, was the guest of A. E. Lyon last Sunday.

J. B. Davidson, the contractor and carpenter, has moved to near the mouth of Miller branch.

C. J. Little, of Winchester, has here several days this week on business connected with the Continental Realty Co.

Dr. J. P. Boggs has had a patch put up in front of his residence on east Main street. Jack Mincey was the contractor.

Samuel Patton is preparing to erect a business and office building on Broadway on the lot formerly owned by C. N. Bowling.

Mrs. Sallie Abshear, of Ford, Ky., and Everett Bradshaw, of Pennsylvania, are visiting Captain and Mrs. W. R. Bradshaw.

Henry Watson and Miss Florence Joyce were married at Mt. Sterling last Monday. Mr. Watson is manager of the telephone at this place.

Mrs. Florence Snowden, of Robins, returned Tuesday from several weeks visit to friends and relatives in Clark and Montgomery counties.

Phone 5 for green tomatoes, green peppers, cucumber pickles, caldage and onions for mixed pickles, Lima beans, whippoorwill peas, corn and pole beans.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Sewell, of Frankfort, are here on business at Swanage Springs, for the benefit of Mrs. Sewell's health.

James Patton, of Rousseau, has moved into the Hiram Centers property, on west Main street. He will engage in the lumber business with his brother, Samuel Patton.

Mrs. John Watts, who has been at Sulphur Springs, Va., for several weeks, has returned as far as Winchester where she will visit about a week before returning home.

W. B. Cardwell and sons brought up a boat load of watermelons last Saturday, some of which were the largest we have ever seen that were grown in this county.

Harrison Combs brought in the first wagon load of home grown watermelons of the season last Friday. He has more than three dozen of melons and is the champion watermelon grower of the county. It says he has more than four thousand melons now on his vines.

The funeral services of Tinsley Holbrook will be conducted at the family graveyard, near Bays, on the second Sunday in October by Revs. A. C. Cooper, C. W. L. Pugh and others. Everybody invited to come.

WILLIE HOLBROOK.

Judge D. D. Sublett, of Salyersville, was here on legal business this week. Although the Judge is nearing the three score and ten mark, he is as sprightly and active as a boy in his teens. He has held many positions of honor and trust and has many friends who wish him many more as fruitful years as he has had in the past.

Mrs. Laura Sewell is visiting her father's family, Thomas Strong on Frozen.

Misses Dora Kate and Bessie Bales, of Frozen, were in town shopping Tuesday.

Breck Crawford was here Wednesday in the interest of his candidacy for sheriff.

J. R. Blake gave a birthday dinner at his home, on College avenue, Wednesday.

Misses Mary and Helen Ford, of Winchester, are the guests of Miss Jennie Bradshaw.

J. R. Blake has fitted up a five and ten cent window in his store. Every article a bargain.

Mrs. R. J. Fulkerson and son, of Cannel City, are visiting relatives and friends in Covington.

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Fletcher have returned from a protracted visit to Toronto and other Canadian points.

S. H. Stidham & Son are representing the International Tailoring Co. You will find their ad in another column.

In another column you will find the ad of F. B. Endicott, telling you of the merits of the New Everett Piano. Read it.

Mrs. J. S. Head is in the hospital at Lexington under treatment for her eyes, which have been affected for some time.

Hamm Gardner, of Bluefields, Miss., was here the first of the week. He is visiting his sister, Mrs. John Godd, at Indian Fields.

Prof. A. C. Carpenter is collecting material for a commodious barn at his home, opposite the mouth of Roark Branch, on Quicksand.

Michael Robinson, while in the river bathing last Friday night, stepped on a nail which went through his foot, making a very serious wound.

John Clay, a Spanish war veteran, has been granted a pension at the rate of $6 per month from October 23, 1899. Edward Marum, attorney.

John W. Reynolds has cleared up three acres of woodland on the Miller branch, near here, since he finished working his corn and has sowed it in turnips.

A special term of the Clark Circuit Court begins at Winchester Monday September 4th, to try the contempt cases against Hargis, French and Callahan.

The mass meeting held at the mouth of Clay Hole Saturday for the purpose of nominating a Democratic candidate for Justice of the Peace, for District No. 6, resulted in the nomination of James Noble.

Judge Aiton B. Parker, the Democratic nominee for President last fall, will soon visit Kentucky. He has been engaged to argue the case of J. D. Park & Sons against Samuel Hartman, before Judge Cochran, at Maysville.

Mrs. Hiram Lockhart, of Lane, Wolfe county, it is reported, attempted suicide near her home by jumping over a cliff, and then cutting her throat with a razor. Then she made two ugly gashes in her stomach. She will recover.

It is reported that Curtis Jett will soon be taken to Cynthiana and put on trial for the murder of James Cockrill. The Court of Appeals reversed the death sentence passed upon him there two years ago. He is now serving a life sentence in the penitentiary for the murder of J. B. Marcum.

To the Democrats of Spring Fork Precinct:

You are hereby notified to meet at your usual polling place on Saturday, September 16, to choose candidates for the office of magistrate and constable to be voted for at the November election.

GREEN SHEPHERD, Chm.

Judge A. J. Anxier died at his home in Pikeville August 15th, of typhoid fever, aged about 60 years. Judge Anxier was well-known in Eastern Kentucky. He served as United States Marshal for Kentucky during President Arthur's administration, and in 1884 was the Republican nominee for Congress in the Tenth district. He served one term as Circuit Judge of the Twenty-fourth district, and was a strong candidate for Appellate Judge in 1900 when Judge O'Rear was nominated.

Births.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Claude Miles, of South Jackson, on last Saturday, a girl.

Ties Wanted.

I want to buy 50,000 ties on the Kentucky river and its tributaries above Jackson. For particulars call on or address me at Jackson, Ky. M. S. CHAIN.

Lectures by Catholic Priests.

Rev. William Punch, of Mt. Sterling, Ky., and Rev. Thomas Conney, of Covington, Ky., will deliver a series of lectures at the court house in Jackson, Saturday, Sunday and Monday nights, August 26, 27, 28. Subjects of interest and importance to all will be discussed. Admission free. All are cordially invited.

Marriage Licenses.

The following marriage licenses have been issued during the past week:

William Babin, of Vest, and Miss Mollie Howard, of Smith Branch; Marens Gilbert and Miss Sarah Jane Fouch, both of Shoulder Blade.

ADVERTISED LETTER LIST

List of unclaimed matter advertised by Daniel D. Hurst, postmaster at Jackson, Ky., August 26th, 1905, and sent to the Dead Letter office at Washington, D. C., for the week ending September 8th:

Armstrong, Dieie
Anderson, Miss Merrie
Chester, Mrs. Robert L.
Crisp, Leef
Combs, Bud
Messer, Willie
Massey, L. L.

Clean Up.

Inasmuch as yellow fever is spreading in the South and with proper conditions, can go, and has gone farther north than Kentucky, and inasmuch as sanitary conditions here in Jackson are very bad and our said conditions are a menace to good health at any time, it behooves our citizens to get busy about their premises and pig pens and clean up. Sanitary precautions are cheaper than doctors and undertakers. Carbolic costs less than coffins. So clean up and do it now. Yours for health.

H. I. M.

The Sick.

Miss Sue B. Williams is very sick with fever.

Mrs. Julia Strong is still in a very critical condition.

D. G. Robinson, the butcher, has about recovered from an attack of fever.

Thomas I. Barnett, who has been ill from typhoid fever for some time, has about recovered.

Mrs. J. B. McLin, who has been sick for some time, threatened with appendicitis, has about recovered.

Mrs. A. H. Patton, who has been in the hospital at Lexington for the past six weeks, under treatment for typhoid fever, returned home last Monday.

The Death Roll.

Roy, the three-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Zepha Landrum, of Lost Creek, died last Friday of croup.

James Riddle, who was convicted at the last term of court for hog stealing and sentenced to the penitentiary for one year, died in that institution last Friday.

Mattie Clemmons, aged 12, daughter of James Madison Clemmons and wife, died Sunday morning, August 20, after several days illness. All that kind friends could do was of no avail. Mattie was an interesting child and will be greatly missed. The funeral service was conducted at the house, on Sunday afternoon by Rev. Preston, and on Monday the interment was made in the family cemetery on upper Quicksand. The afflicted family has the sympathy of the entire community.

Mrs. Thomas South, of Frankfort, (nee Miss Laura Kash, of Winchester,) met a sad death at her home in Frankfort Monday from ptomaine poison. It is believed that the cause of the poison was from eating canned salmon on the day before. She was only 21 years of age and the daughter of Capt. L. C. Kash, of Winchester, a native of this county. The deceased visited in Jackson some four years ago, where she has a number of close relatives and friends who will mourn her loss.

Go to G. D. Plummer for anything in the Fancy Grocery line.

New Cash Store.

I HAVE JUST RECEIVED A NEW LINE OF MENS' and BOYS' CLOTHING,
Laces, Hamburgs, Counterpanes,
Lace Curtains, Etc.,

which I can and will sell so low that after pricing you will wonder how and why I do this.

Today is your day to see me for values. The longer you wait the more you lose.

Yours for business,
J. R. BLAKE.

LEES COLLEGIATE INSTITUTE

OFFERS INSTRUCTION IN THE FOLLOWING DEPARTMENTS:
PRIMARY, INTERMEDIATE, COLLEGIATE, NORMAL,
MUSIC, MANUAL TRAINING, DOMESTIC SCIENCE.
BOARD IN HOME, $2.00 PER WEEK.
Manual Training and Domestic Science equipment the best in Eastern Kentucky.
Diploma from Lees Collegiate Institute will admit the holder to any college in the State without examinations.

NEXT TERM BEGINS SEPTEMBER 4.

Call or write for catalogue and further information.

M. L. GIRTON, Principal, Jackson, Ky.

NOTICE.
I have opened my Picture Gallery in the Fleenor building, corner Main and Broadway, in the rooms formerly occupied by the Singer Sewing Machine Co.
J. D. MOORE.

FOR SALE.
One odd steers weighing about 1,400 pounds. Call on or address,
H. W. HOUSSELL,
Jackson, Ky.

NOTICE.
I have the notes and accounts of J. B. Little for collection, by order of Referee in Bankruptcy. Persons indebted to him will call and settle at once.
KELLY KASH,
Trustee in Bankruptcy.

Teachers' Examination.
Result of the Breathitt county teachers' examination for August, 1905:

Number of applicants, 14; number to pull out, 2; number to fail, 2; number to get certificates, 10; as follows, viz:

First Class—Wilgus Back, Geo. W. Noble, Wm. L. Campbell, Elliott Craft, Sewell B. Williams.

Second Class—W. K. Berry, Callie Noble, Everett Back, Kenton Higgins, Samuel H. Hurst, Jr.

There were some who had not attended the institute, to whom we could not issue certificates until they get permission from the State Superintendent authorizing us to issue them. Manuscripts are reserved for any one not satisfied with his or her grade.
HENRY B. NOBLE, Supt.

Master Commissioner's Sale.

BREATHITT CIRCUIT COURT.
English Construction Co. Plaintiff.
Hon. Co. Notice of Sale.

vs.
W. S. Mullins, &c., Defendants.
By virtue of a judgment and order of sale of the Breathitt Circuit Court, made in the above styled cause, at its regular May term, 1905, for the sum of $700.00, with interest at the rate of six per cent per annum from the second day of September, 1903, until paid, and $14.00 costs therein expended, I shall proceed to offer for sale at or near the residence of Barlow Vacy, on Quicksand Creek, Breathitt County, Ky., on the 13th day of September, 1905, between the hours of 12 o'clock m. and 2 o'clock p. m., the following described personal property, viz.: One 20 horse power boiler with 16 horse power engine, one right-hand medium-sized saw mill with solid carriage and one 54-inch solid tooth saw, and one 60 foot 10-inch 4-ply belt canvass stitched, 150 feet 1 and 1-inch pipe for pump, and all other fittings and fixtures belonging to said mill.

Said property will be sold at

WATCHES.

Ingersoll $1 Watch.
New England $2 Watch.
Seth Thomas Watch.
Heavy Solid Watch.
Nickle Cases, $2.75.
Ladies' Watches in Gold, Silver, Nickel and Gun Metal—$5 and up.

Watch Chains.

Good Quality Rolled Gold Plate, Warranted 1 to 10 years, $1.50 to $7.50.

HEINTZ,
JEWELER,
E. Main St. Opp. Phoenix Hotel,
LEXINGTON, KY.

THE NEW EVERETT

Never in the history of Pianoforte building has its equal ever been produced.

IN THE SHORT PERIOD OF SEVEN YEARS
THE NEW EVERETT
HAS ATTAINED

THE HIGHEST PINNACLE OF FAME
in the praise and admiration of the most renowned Musicians of the world, who are ever ready to pay it unstinted praise. Endowed with every feature essential in the production of

AN ARTISTIC PIANO
with a tone full of richness and purity, from treble to bass, as clear and pure as the water from the rippling brook, a singing tone and carrying power unsurpassed and recognized as

THE MOST PERFECT EVER PRODUCED.

From every vibration of THE NEW EVERETT comes messages of sympathy and love that appeals to the very soul of man, and it today stands before the public as a LIVING TESTIMONIAL of

THE GREATEST WORK OF ART
the world has ever known

F. B. ENDICOTT,
Corner Main and Broadway, JACKSON, KY.

R. M. SHELLEY. W. H. LITTLE.

SHELLEY & LITTLE,

MANUFACTURERS AND DEALERS IN
MARBLE AND GRANITE
Monuments
and Tombstones.

Satisfaction guaranteed. Call or write for prices and save money by buying from us.

22 YEARS EXPERIENCE.
JACKSON, BREATHITT COUNTY, KENTUCKY.

BEST HOTEL IN THE CITY. FREE TUSTO and FROM DEPOT.

ARLINGTON HOTEL

AULBEE, PROP.
JACKSON, KY.

GOOD TABLE. FIRST CLASS SAMPLE ROOMS.

W. H. Henderson,
Ayres Street, Opp. Post Office, LEXINGTON, KY.

DEALER IN

Grain, Seeds, Feed

Wheat, Rye, Barley, Oats, Clover, Timothy, Millet, Kentucky Blue Grass, Orchard Grass, Hungarian Grass, Straw & Mill Feed.

CLOCKS.
Silverware, Silver Novelties, and all kinds of first class Jewelry, call on

S. D. FLEENOR,
JEWELER AND OPTICIAN,
JACKSON, KY.

KILL THE COUGH AND CURE THE LUNGS

WITH
New
FOR CONSUMPTION, BRONCHITIS, AND ALL LUNG AFFECTIONS.

Send for booklet and sample for all THE LUNG and LUNG AFFECTIONS.

World Done When Promised

HEINTZ,
JEWELER,
E. Main St. Opp. Phoenix Hotel,
LEXINGTON, KY.

EBEN HOLDEN

By
IRVING BACHELLER

Copyright, 1904, by Lothrop Publishing Company

I walked slowly back to the office and wrote my article. When the printer came at 12, I went to his room before he had had time to begin work.

"Mr. Greeley," I said, "here is my resignation. I am going to the war."

His habitual smile gave way to a sober look as he turned to me, his big white coat on his arm. He pursed his lips and bowed thoughtfully. Then he threw his coat in a chair and whiped his eyes with his handkerchief.

"Well, God bless you, my boy," he said. "I wish I could go too."

I worked some weeks before my resignation was sent forward. I planned to be at home for a day, but they needed me on the staff, and I dreaded the path of a parting the gravity of which my return would serve only to accentuate. So I wrote them a cheerful letter and kept at work. It was my duty to interview some of the great men of that day as to the course of the government. I remember Commodore Vanderbilt came down to see me in shirt sleeves and slippers that afternoon, with a handkerchief tied about his neck in place of a collar—a thin man of simple manners and a big heart, one who spoke his mind in good, plain talk, and, I suppose, he got along with as little profanity as possible, considering his many cares.

He called me "boy" and spoke of a certain public man as a "big sucker." I soon learned that to him a "sucker" was the lowest and meanest thing in the world. He sent me away with nothing but a great admiration of him. As a rule, the guests of that day were plain men of the people, with no frills upon them and with a way of talking from the shoulder. They said what they meant and meant it hard. I have heard Lincoln talk when his words had the whiz of a bullet and his arm the jerk of a piston.

John Trumbull invited McCallum, of whom I had told him much, and myself to dine with him one evening that week. I went in my new dress suit that mark of slight extravagance for which fate had brought me down to the pounding of rocks under Boss McCoolnick. Trumbull's rooms were a feast for the eye—aglow with red roses. He introduced me to Margaret Hull and her mother, who were there to dine with us. She was a slight woman of thirty-two, with a face of striking beauty, but of singular sweetness. Her dark eyes had a mild and tender light to them; her voice a plaintive, gentle tone, the like of which one may hear rarely if ever. For years she had been a night worker in the millous of the lower city, and many an unfortunate had been turned from the way of evil by her good offices. I sat beside her at the table, and she told me of her work and how often she had met Trumbull in his night walks.

"Found me a hopeless heathen," he remarked.

"To save him I had to consent to marry him," she said, laughing.

"Who but found love is already in heaven," said McCallum. "I have not found it and I am in it—he hesitated as if searching for a synonym—a boarding house on Walnut street," he added.

"The remarkable thing about Margaret Hull was her simple faith. It looked to me no glittering generality for its reward, such as the soul's 'highest good'—much talked of in the philosophy of that time. She believed that for every soul she saved one jewel would be added to her crown in heaven. And yet she was so level upon her feet. Her black costume was beautifully fitted to her form, but was almost severely plain. It occurred to me that she did not quite understand her own heart, and, for that matter, who does? But she had something in her soul that passed all understanding. I shall not try to say what, with so little knowledge of those high things, save that I know it was of God. To what purpose had I been saying effort she had schooled herself I was soon to know.

"I was soon to find my one true love," said McCallum, smiling. "It is not a love, my dear," said he, "but I have a mighty fear in me, remember the twenty-fourth verse of Proverbs: 'It is better to dwell in the corner of the house than with a brawling woman in a wide house.' We cannot all be so fortunate as our friend Trumbull. But I have felt the great passion."

She smiled at her fatherly as he spoke in a quiet manner, his "yes" coming of his tongue without stately roll. His environment and the company had given him a fair degree of stolidity. There was a true dignity in his deep voice, and his body bristled with it. From his stiff and heavy shock of blond hair, parted carefully on the left side to his high lined brows. The few light hairs that stood in lonely rebellion on his upper lip, the rest of his hair was always well shorn, had no small part in the grand effect of McCallum.

"A love story," said Miss Hull, "I told of a simple, unconscious eloquence, a higher feeling than I dare try to describe. And when it was over she had won their love and confidence so that they clung to her hands and kissed them and wet them with their tears. The same sweet man, I suppose, had no change in it. I was to walk home with him, and said Trumbull was so."

"So that is the story of whom I had heard of," said McCallum, smiling.

"What a story," said he, "I was told of a simple, unconscious eloquence, a higher feeling than I dare try to describe. And when it was over she had won their love and confidence so that they clung to her hands and kissed them and wet them with their tears. The same sweet man, I suppose, had no change in it. I was to walk home with him, and said Trumbull was so."

"So that is the story of whom I had heard of," said McCallum, smiling.

"What a story," said he, "I was told of a simple, unconscious eloquence, a higher feeling than I dare try to describe. And when it was over she had won their love and confidence so that they clung to her hands and kissed them and wet them with their tears. The same sweet man, I suppose, had no change in it. I was to walk home with him, and said Trumbull was so."

"So that is the story of whom I had heard of," said McCallum, smiling.

"What a story," said he, "I was told of a simple, unconscious eloquence, a higher feeling than I dare try to describe. And when it was over she had won their love and confidence so that they clung to her hands and kissed them and wet them with their tears. The same sweet man, I suppose, had no change in it. I was to walk home with him, and said Trumbull was so."

"So that is the story of whom I had heard of," said McCallum, smiling.

"What a story," said he, "I was told of a simple, unconscious eloquence, a higher feeling than I dare try to describe. And when it was over she had won their love and confidence so that they clung to her hands and kissed them and wet them with their tears. The same sweet man, I suppose, had no change in it. I was to walk home with him, and said Trumbull was so."

"So that is the story of whom I had heard of," said McCallum, smiling.

"What a story," said he, "I was told of a simple, unconscious eloquence, a higher feeling than I dare try to describe. And when it was over she had won their love and confidence so that they clung to her hands and kissed them and wet them with their tears. The same sweet man, I suppose, had no change in it. I was to walk home with him, and said Trumbull was so."

"So that is the story of whom I had heard of," said McCallum, smiling.

"What a story," said he, "I was told of a simple, unconscious eloquence, a higher feeling than I dare try to describe. And when it was over she had won their love and confidence so that they clung to her hands and kissed them and wet them with their tears. The same sweet man, I suppose, had no change in it. I was to walk home with him, and said Trumbull was so."

"So that is the story of whom I had heard of," said McCallum, smiling.

"What a story," said he, "I was told of a simple, unconscious eloquence, a higher feeling than I dare try to describe. And when it was over she had won their love and confidence so that they clung to her hands and kissed them and wet them with their tears. The same sweet man, I suppose, had no change in it. I was to walk home with him, and said Trumbull was so."

"So that is the story of whom I had heard of," said McCallum, smiling.

"What a story," said he, "I was told of a simple, unconscious eloquence, a higher feeling than I dare try to describe. And when it was over she had won their love and confidence so that they clung to her hands and kissed them and wet them with their tears. The same sweet man, I suppose, had no change in it. I was to walk home with him, and said Trumbull was so."

"So that is the story of whom I had heard of," said McCallum, smiling.

"What a story," said he, "I was told of a simple, unconscious eloquence, a higher feeling than I dare try to describe. And when it was over she had won their love and confidence so that they clung to her hands and kissed them and wet them with their tears. The same sweet man, I suppose, had no change in it. I was to walk home with him, and said Trumbull was so."

"So that is the story of whom I had heard of," said McCallum, smiling.

"What a story," said he, "I was told of a simple, unconscious eloquence, a higher feeling than I dare try to describe. And when it was over she had won their love and confidence so that they clung to her hands and kissed them and wet them with their tears. The same sweet man, I suppose, had no change in it. I was to walk home with him, and said Trumbull was so."

"So that is the story of whom I had heard of," said McCallum, smiling.

"What a story," said he, "I was told of a simple, unconscious eloquence, a higher feeling than I dare try to describe. And when it was over she had won their love and confidence so that they clung to her hands and kissed them and wet them with their tears. The same sweet man, I suppose, had no change in it. I was to walk home with him, and said Trumbull was so."

"So that is the story of whom I had heard of," said McCallum, smiling.

"What a story," said he, "I was told of a simple, unconscious eloquence, a higher feeling than I dare try to describe. And when it was over she had won their love and confidence so that they clung to her hands and kissed them and wet them with their tears. The same sweet man, I suppose, had no change in it. I was to walk home with him, and said Trumbull was so."

"So that is the story of whom I had heard of," said McCallum, smiling.

"What a story," said he, "I was told of a simple, unconscious eloquence, a higher feeling than I dare try to describe. And when it was over she had won their love and confidence so that they clung to her hands and kissed them and wet them with their tears. The same sweet man, I suppose, had no change in it. I was to walk home with him, and said Trumbull was so."

"So that is the story of whom I had heard of," said McCallum, smiling.

"What a story," said he, "I was told of a simple, unconscious eloquence, a higher feeling than I dare try to describe. And when it was over she had won their love and confidence so that they clung to her hands and kissed them and wet them with their tears. The same sweet man, I suppose, had no change in it. I was to walk home with him, and said Trumbull was so."

"So that is the story of whom I had heard of," said McCallum, smiling.

"What a story," said he, "I was told of a simple, unconscious eloquence, a higher feeling than I dare try to describe. And when it was over she had won their love and confidence so that they clung to her hands and kissed them and wet them with their tears. The same sweet man, I suppose, had no change in it. I was to walk home with him, and said Trumbull was so."

"So that is the story of whom I had heard of," said McCallum, smiling.

"What a story," said he, "I was told of a simple, unconscious eloquence, a higher feeling than I dare try to describe. And when it was over she had won their love and confidence so that they clung to her hands and kissed them and wet them with their tears. The same sweet man, I suppose, had no change in it. I was to walk home with him, and said Trumbull was so."

"So that is the story of whom I had heard of," said McCallum, smiling.

"What a story," said he, "I was told of a simple, unconscious eloquence, a higher feeling than I dare try to describe. And when it was over she had won their love and confidence so that they clung to her hands and kissed them and wet them with their tears. The same sweet man, I suppose, had no change in it. I was to walk home with him, and said Trumbull was so."

"So that is the story of whom I had heard of," said McCallum, smiling.

"What a story," said he, "I was told of a simple, unconscious eloquence, a higher feeling than I dare try to describe. And when it was over she had won their love and confidence so that they clung to her hands and kissed them and wet them with their tears. The same sweet man, I suppose, had no change in it. I was to walk home with him, and said Trumbull was so."

"So that is the story of whom I had heard of," said McCallum, smiling.

"What a story," said he, "I was told of a simple, unconscious eloquence, a higher feeling than I dare try to describe. And when it was over she had won their love and confidence so that they clung to her hands and kissed them and wet them with their tears. The same sweet man, I suppose, had no change in it. I was to walk home with him, and said Trumbull was so."

"So that is the story of whom I had heard of," said McCallum, smiling.

"What a story," said he, "I was told of a simple, unconscious eloquence, a higher feeling than I dare try to describe. And when it was over she had won their love and confidence so that they clung to her hands and kissed them and wet them with their tears. The same sweet man, I suppose, had no change in it. I was to walk home with him, and said Trumbull was so."

"So that is the story of whom I had heard of," said McCallum, smiling.

"What a story," said he, "I was told of a simple, unconscious eloquence, a higher feeling than I dare try to describe. And when it was over she had won their love and confidence so that they clung to her hands and kissed them and wet them with their tears. The same sweet man, I suppose, had no change in it. I was to walk home with him, and said Trumbull was so."

"So that is the story of whom I had heard of," said McCallum, smiling.

"What a story," said he, "I was told of a simple, unconscious eloquence, a higher feeling than I dare try to describe. And when it was over she had won their love and confidence so that they clung to her hands and kissed them and wet them with their tears. The same sweet man, I suppose, had no change in it. I was to walk home with him, and said Trumbull was so."

"So that is the story of whom I had heard of," said McCallum, smiling.

"What a story," said he, "I was told of a simple, unconscious eloquence, a higher feeling than I dare try to describe. And when it was over she had won their love and confidence so that they clung to her hands and kissed them and wet them with their tears. The same sweet man, I suppose, had no change in it. I was to walk home with him, and said Trumbull was so."

"So that is the story of whom I had heard of," said McCallum, smiling.

"What a story," said he, "I was told of a simple, unconscious eloquence, a higher feeling than I dare try to describe. And when it was over she had won their love and confidence so that they clung to her hands and kissed them and wet them with their tears. The same sweet man, I suppose, had no change in it. I was to walk home with him, and said Trumbull was so."

"So that is the story of whom I had heard of," said McCallum, smiling.

Opportunities in California

The trade in the Orient is opening up. Our exports to Japan and China multiplied during the last year.

There will soon be a tremendous increase in the trade of the Pacific Coast cities with the Far East!

Big opportunities for the man who lives there. Why not look the field over?

Only $62.50, Chicago to San Francisco or Los Angeles and return, May 1, 2, 3, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 29, 30, 31, June 1, August 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, and 14, 1905. Tickets good for return for 90 days.

Rate for a double berth in a comfortable tourist sleeper from Chicago to San Francisco, Los Angeles, Santa Barbara, and many other points in California, only $7. Through train service from Union Passenger Station, Chicago, via the

Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul, Union Pacific and Southern Pacific Line

This is the route of The Overland Limited, leaving Union Passenger Station, Chicago, 6:05 p. m., and The California Express at 10:25 p. m. The California Express carries tourist sleeping cars to California every day. Both trains carry through standard sleepers.

Complete information sent free on receipt of coupon with blank lines filled.

W. S. HOWELL,
Gen'l Eastern Agent, 38 Broadway,
NEW YORK CITY.

F. A. MILLER,
General Passenger Agent,
CHICAGO.

Name	_____
Street address	_____
City	_____ State _____
Probable destination	CALIFORNIA

"If any one spoke of him in my hearing I said every word of flattery at my command. 'What Tom Douglas,' I would say, 'the man of the hour! that's written those wonderful articles from the law courts? A genius, sir, an absolute genius!' Well, we were rapidly gaining reputation. One of those days I found myself in love with a comely lass as ever a man courted. Her mother had a proper curiosity as to my character. I referred them to Tom Douglas of the Herald. He was the only man there who had known me well. The girl and her mother both went to him.

"Your friend was just here," said the young lady when I called again. "He is a very handsome man."

"And a noble man," I said.

"And didn't I hear you say that he was a very skillful man too?"

"A genius," I answered. "An absolute genius!"

McCallum smiled and laughed heartily as he said:

"What happened?"

"She took him for a fool," said the young lady.

"And he answered," said the young lady.

"And he answered," said the young lady.

"And he answered," said the young lady.

"And he answered," said the young lady.

"And he answered," said the young lady.

"And he answered," said the young lady.

"And he answered," said the young lady.

"And he answered," said the young lady.

"And he answered," said the young lady.

"And he answered," said the young lady.

"And he answered," said the young lady.

"And he answered," said the young lady.

"And he answered," said the young lady.

"And he answered," said the young lady.

"And he answered," said the young lady.

"And he answered," said the young lady.

"And he answered," said the young lady.

"And he answered," said the young lady.

"And he answered," said the young lady.

"And he answered," said the young lady.

"And he answered," said the young lady.

"And he answered," said the young lady.

"And he answered," said the young lady.

"And he answered," said the young lady.

"And he answered," said the young lady.

"And he answered," said the young lady.

"And he answered," said the young lady.

"And he answered," said the young lady.

"And he answered," said the young lady.

"And he answered," said the young lady.

"And he answered," said the young lady.

"And he answered," said the young lady.

"And he answered," said the young lady.

"And he answered," said the young lady.

"And he answered," said the young lady.

"And he answered," said the young lady.

"And he answered," said the young lady.

"And he answered," said the young lady.

"And he answered," said the young lady.

"And he answered," said the young lady.

"And he answered," said the young lady.

the new suit of clothes reading a paper, while a boy was blacking one of his boots. I sat down, awaiting a more favorable moment. A very young man had come into the room and stood timidly holding his hat.

"I wish to see Mr. Greeley," he said.

"There he is," I answered. "Go and speak to him."

"Mr. Greeley," said he, "I have called to see if you can take me on the Tribune."

The printer continued reading as if he were the only man in the room.

The young man looked at him and then at me with an expression that moved me to a fellow feeling. He was a country boy, more green and timid even than I had been.

"He did not hear you. Try again," I said.

"Mr. Greeley," said he, louder than before, "I have called to see if you can take me on the Tribune."

The editor's eyes glanced off at the boy and returned to their reading.

"No, boy, I can't," he drawled, shifting his eyes to another article.

And the boy, who was called to the service of the paper in time, but not until after his pen had made him furious, went away with a look of bitter disappointment.

In his little Mr. Greeley wore all ways the best material that soon took on a friendly and deflected look. The famous white overcoat had been bought for $5 of a man who had come to the office of the New York Herald before and who established his purchase a great favor. That was a time when the price of a coat was a thing of no little importance to the printer. Tonight there was about him a great glow, such as comes of the falling and new thing.

He was so preoccupied with his paper that I went out into the big room and sat down, awaiting a better time.

The printer's going to Washington to talk with the president," said an editor.

Just then Mr. Greeley went running hurriedly up the spiral stair on his way to the type room. Three or four compositors had gone up ahead of him. He had risen out of sight when we heard a tremendous uproar above stairs. I ran up, two steps at a time, while the high voice of Mr. Greeley came pouring down.

"What's the matter?" I called.

"The printer's gone," said the editor.

"Gone?" I called.

"Gone," said the editor.

"Gone," said the editor.

"Gone," said the editor.

"Gone," said the editor.

"Gone," said the editor.

"Gone," said the editor.

"Gone," said the editor.

"Gone," said the editor.

"Gone," said the editor.

"Gone," said the editor.

"Gone," said the editor.

"Gone," said the editor.

"Gone," said the editor.

"Gone," said the editor.

"Gone," said the editor.

"Gone," said the editor.

"Gone," said the editor.

"Gone," said the editor.

"Gone," said the editor.

"Gone," said the editor.

"Gone," said the editor.

"Gone," said the editor.

"Gone," said the editor.

"Gone," said the editor.

"Gone," said the editor.

"Gone," said the editor.

"Gone," said the editor.

"Gone," said the editor.

"Gone," said the editor.

"Gone," said the editor.

"Gone," said the editor.

no encouragement to contest in his mind. "The drooping idiot," he declared himself. In a moment he opened his vest and surveyed the damage.

"Look at that!" he went on complainingly. "Ugh! The robbing, filthy, white-bellied idiot! I'd rather let him with the jawbone of an ass."

"You'll have to get another shirt," said the pressman, who stood near.

"You can't go to Washington with such a heap of dirt."

"I'd brush him if I knew how to brush," said the editor.

A number of his followers had gathered about him, and a young man who was the poverty for a new shirt. When it came the printer took off the soiled garment, flung it into a corner, and I helped him to put himself in proper fetid again. This finished, he ran away hurriedly, with his curling, and I missed the opportunity I wanted for a brief talk with him.

TO BE CONTINUED.

Found Exposed.

A few counterfeiters have lately been making and trying to sell imitations of Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds and other ailments, thereby defrauding the public. This is to warn you to beware of such people, who seek to profit through stealing the reputation of remedies which have been successfully curing disease, for over 35 years. A sure protection, to you, is our name on the wrapper. Look for it on all Dr. King's or Bucklen's remedies, as all others are mere imitations. H. K. RICHMOND & CO., Chicago, Ill., and Windsor, Canada.

Dr. King's New Discovery.

The blue jay is a great misanthrope and gives utterance to many eloquent remarks, but the one most often heard in the woods relates to the possession of a "nice little one." Just exactly what sort of creature or thing this is no one can tell, but whenever I am in the woods I hear the jays exclaim "nice little one—got him," to which the meadow lark in the pasture clearing replies, "Oh so cheap," with a most scornful drawl on the "so" and an inflection on the "cheap." As a rule, the meadow lark says his say while perched on a fence post, and he talks with his mouth wide open. There are a lot of little people in the woods who are always in such a hurry and talk so fast that it is difficult to tell what they say. There is that jay-colored little fellow the red start, crying, "I want was who who who," and the dainty summer yellow bird, who has something to say in the same line and manner. What he wants is, I think, although he never says it, his constant cry is, "What, what, what, what, what, what."—Dan Beard in Recreation.

FOUND.

John W. Dean had a pain in his back for about five years and it finally became so great that he could not work and, in fact, could not walk at times. Several physicians failed to cure him, but he found a remedy. It was Smith's Kidney and Nerve Tonic. For sale by S. H. Stidham & Son, Jackson, Ky.

RAILROAD TABLES

Lexington & Eastern R'y

LOCAL TIME TABLE.
Effective May 21, 1895.

West Bound.
	No. 1 Daily	No. 2 Daily
	Ex. Sunday
	A M	P M
Ly Jackson,	6 35	2 25
U & K Junction	6 40	2 30
Beattyville Jan	7 26	3 26
Torment,	7 47	3 47
Natural Bridge,	8 11	4 01
Stanton,	8 28	4 30
Ulay City,	8 37	4 39
L & E Junction	9 10	5 08
Winchester	9 23	5 21
At Lexington,	10 10	6 05